3.2.1 - Institution has created an ecosystem for innovations and has initiatives for creation and transfer of knowledge

Innovation is a new idea, creative work, and imagination in the form of tools or methods. This institute proposes an innovative ecosystem of all the available smart class web-based learning sources. Innovative knowledge by taking the initiative to create and disseminate various learning materials. Our institution has study sources such as NDLI, e-pg pathshala, N-List, etc. to update their knowledge of initiative programs by the concerned department faculties. The students are inspired to participate in activities like quizzes, debates, essay competitions, and folk-culture-based rangoli competitions.

Project work/ field work/ surveying is taken into account according to the university syllabus. Such activities in the social arena are enhanced under the banner of NCC, and NSS. Some of the classes prepare and submit their project work, e.g. M.A. Geography, M.A. Sociology, M.Sc. Chemistry and Environmental Studies for U.G. Level courses
