5.4.1

Registered alumni association

The Alumni Association was informally established by a few formal students of this college with a mission to be involved with different activities of their own college as they have a deep passion for their college they started to organized regular meetings with the passout student in this college as teacher in various capacity and tried to expand their group .They are till now have not been able to provide any financial support to the college but by involving themselves in the cultural program or any health related programs of the college surely they are becoming part of the development activities of the institution

Institute motivates and supports to the ex-students, their parents, community to maintain healthy relations with the institution. A WhatsApp group has created on 30th November 2019. In order to increase the member in group for alumni, alumni are actively networked using the WhatsApp facility. Till date members joined WhatsApp group is 176. It helps our institution in terms of academic planning, students, career guidance and on-the-job guidance in their firms also. Alumni members are the active members in IQAC and NSS Committee etc. The registration of Alumni Association is under process in C.G. Firm and Society.
