Government Swami Atmanand Post Graduate College was established on 06 September 1988 under the Tribal Development Scheme of the Government of India. The Faculty of Arts in the college started with 10 students, which started operating in the name of Government College in the District Bhawan located at Bakhrupara in Narayanpur, which was affiliated to Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University. In the year 2001-02, Commerce Faculty was also started along with Arts. On 13 June 2008, the college was named after the famous sant Swami Atmanand, who made an invaluable contribution in the field of education in Narayanpur district, The institution is in a remote area and Naxal-affected, here 90 percent of the students are from the special backward tribe "Abujhmadia" and they are also very poor financially, due to which they have to face financial problems in completing their education. From time to time, some students are given financial assistance by depositing admission fee and examination fee. Most of the alumni are members of the Jan Bhagidari Samiti and the necessary educational material is donated by them. Most of the alumni are in government service, so they will be added as alumni in the coming session. A WhatsApp group of alumni of this college has been created on 30 November 2019. In which about 388 alumni have joined at present and in the session - 2023-24, the committee has been formed by taking 300 admission fees from 11 alumni and continuous efforts are being made to make new members. Date-21/07/2023 CG Farm and Society has been registered with Jagdalpur, whose registration number is 122202329925. And at present Rs 6000 is deposited in the committee which promotes participation and leadership opportunities for students in the district are to encourage student participation.
