Institution facilities students' representation and engagement in various administrative co-curricular and extracurricular activities following duly established processes and norms

On December 21, 2023, a vibrant celebration of cultural activities took place. Participants showcased their talents in a variety of events, including debate competitions, speeches, rangoli, drawing, and greeting card preparation. Other highlights included floral decoration, a food festival, tribal and Chhattisgarhi dress competitions, and captivating solo and group performances in singing and dancing. These events provided a platform for creativity, expression, and cultural appreciation.

Extracurricular activities fostered holistic development through initiatives like NCC, NSS, Red Ribbon, and Red Cross programs. These organizations actively engaged in impactful activities such as tree plantations, blood donation camps, cleanliness drives, and youth travel, nurturing a sense of social responsibility among student participants. Sports enthusiasts also participated in university and state-level competitions in kho-kho, kabaddi, football, volleyball, badminton, chess, running, athletics, etc.

Co-curricular activities further enhanced intellectual growth. Observances like National Science Day, National Mathematics Day, National Constitution Day, and National Youth Day promoted awareness and knowledge. Together, these cultural, extracurricular, and co-curricular endeavors cultivated well-rounded personalities, instilled confidence, and encouraged teamwork and leadership. These initiatives celebrated diversity and strengthened the sense of community, empowering participants to excel in various facets of life.
